FIRE AWARENESS

The Essentials of Fire Awareness Course is a half day course that can fit into a morning or an afternoon.

It forms an essential part of induction and awareness training.

The course covers information that will help to ensure that team members understand what is required to keep themselves and their colleagues safe at work.

The course covers:

- Responsibilities
- How do fires start?
- Fire procedures
- Action in the event of fire
- Fire Extinguishers
- Fire Presentation
- Electrical Safety
- Good Housekeeping

P.F.E. deliver this course throughout the U.K.

The course can be run on an employer's own site where suitable training facilities exist.

FIRE WARDENS COURSE

This course is taught over one full day or can be split into two half days.

The course covers:

- Legislation
- The principles of combustion
- Fire procedures
- The role of a fire warden
- Fire Extinguishers
- Reducing the Risk

This course is ideal for organisations wishing to provide Fire Warden and Fire Management training.
